HEAVY GUN FORGINGS

The Washington Navy Yard Will Be Kept Busy for Some Time.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Gun forgings are arriving quite rapidly at the Washington navy yard under the contract with the Bethlehem Iron works, and the gun shop is being worked nearly up to its present capacity. In the gun carriage shop there is a temporary slack in the work, owing to delay in receiving material, and a reduction of force has been made for the present.

Thus far the largest guns built at the yard have been ten-inch caliber, but the first twelve-inch forgings are expected from Bethlehem by Nov. 10. The ordnance bureau has made arrangements for a contract with the Bethlehem company for the forging of the guns of the three battle ships, and a large contract for forgings is also to be made soon with the Bethlehem Steel company. These two contracts will keep the ordnance shops running for nearly two years to come.

The six-inch gun of thirty-five caliber length, used at the Annapolis armor test, did such good service that Commodore Folger, chief of the ordnance bureau, has decided to have no more six-inch guns made of less than that length after the forgings at present contracted for are worked up. It is also likely that all eight-inch guns made in the future, including those for the new battle ships, will be made forty calibers in length, instead of thirty-five, which has heretofore been the length of these guns.

SAVED BY A TALKING WHY HE DID THE RASH ACT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—J. B. Creighton, of the firm of J. B. Creighton & Company, bankers and brokers, No. 72 Broadway, was found dead in his office early yesterday morning. The exact cause of his death is not yet known, though it is believed he committed suicide by taking some sort of poison.

Later the autopsy made on the body disclosed that death was due to morphine poisoning.

The following open letter was found lying on the floor beside him:

To Whom it May Concern—I have been through a good square business fight and have lost the battle, and now when my poor brain is aching with pain and so badly that it has taken poor Jack's best efforts to hold his head above water, I gave way to the word of God and end a life that is the future world, no doubt, the usual, but good, to all my kind friends and wish them a sincere and truthful success. J. B. CREIGHTON.

P. S. Be careful and notify my wife kindly.

POISONED BY CHEMICALS.

Employees of a Dye House Inhaled a Deadly Poison.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Bernard Hughes, aged 18 years; James T. Gage, aged 44; Walter Spellman, aged 26, and William Eberhart, aged 17, employed at the Quaker City dye works, were poisoned in a peculiar manner yesterday, and two of them will probably die. Experiments have been made for some time with chemicals for a new dye, which formed a compound which produced a deadly poison, and some of the dye had leaked through the floor to the room underneath, where the men kept their street clothing.

Hughes entered the dressing room at noon and came out saying he felt ill. Tige, Spellman and Eberhart soon after entered the room and came out feeling very sick. Hughes, Spellman and Tige were taken to the hospital and Eberhart was carried home. The physicians say that Hughes and Eberhart will probably die from inhaling the deadly poison. Tige and Spellman are still very sick but may recover.

A suit for damages followed, in which he obtained a very large verdict, and through it Lee became widely known. The deceased came with his mother and sister to Cincinnati from Lancaster, England, at the age of 19. For over forty years he has been in business in Cincinnati.

COUNT VON MOLTKE.

All Germany to Do Him Honor Saturday and Sunday.

HIS NINETIETH BIRTHDAY.

The Venerable Field Marshal the Only Man of the Day Whom the Emperor Regards With Veneration and to Whose Opinion He Bows—Other Cable News.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—All Germany is alive with preparation to do honor to Count Von Moltke on his ninetieth birthday. A Berlin correspondent says that the venerable field marshal is the only military man of the day whom the emperor really regards with veneration and to whose opinion he bows.

There has been for many years a friendship approaching affection between young William and the veteran general, the good will of the emperor being cordially reciprocated by his eminent subject. In the German army, also, all agree in their admiration of Von Moltke and the testimony to his abilities and services is as universal as it is sincere.

All the courts of the empire will be represented in Saturday and Sunday's celebration, and many sovereign princes will be present in person and proceed with Emperor William at their head to congratulate the great commander. Berlin and the various municipalities, throughout Germany will hold celebrations and it is said to be the desire of the emperor that Alsace and Lorraine shall show their loyalty by special demonstrations. It is not yet certain, so far as semi-official utterances indicate, what title will be offered to Von Moltke by the emperor.

Count Von Moltke in Berlin.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—Count Von Moltke arrived here yesterday. He was met at the railway station by an enormous crowd of people, who cheered him the entire distance from the station to his headquarters.

Two thousand persons were present at an entertainment given by the Students' association in honor of Count Von Moltke last night. The entertainment included a large number of literary, military and artistic notables. A letter was read from Von Moltke, thanking the students for their compliment, and the students reply sent their congratulations.

The emperor's birthday present to Count Von Moltke is a marshal's baton of silver embellished with imperial eagles set with diamonds.

CHARGES AGAINST STANLEY

Made in the Diary and Letters of Maj. Barrett Just Published.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Serious charges are made against Stanley in Maj. Barrett's diary and letters which have just been published. The diary declares that Stanley threatened to blast the major's reputation with Lord Wolseley and to ruin his career in the army. In referring to the incident the diary says:

"Afterwards, turning to me, Stanley said that it was in his power to ruin me in the service. I said it would take a great deal more than he could say to do that. He punished me afterwards by making me march to Leopoldville with seventy men who were noted for laziness and incapacity for carrying loads, and I must have done the same."

The story continues an account of a quarrel between Stanley and Jephson, with which occasion Stanley offered to fight Jephson. In the diaries the issue presented, is whether the misfortune of the rear column was due to the inaction of Maj. Barrett and that of his companions, or whether Stanley himself was primarily responsible.

In his letter Mr. Stanley finds fault because the rear column did not follow the advance column as directed. The diary and letters show that Stanley made it impossible to carry out his order, as he took all the strong, able men and those of good character, with him, leaving to the rear guard the sick, feeble and incorrigible.

THE ELECTRIC DEATH

To Be Tried on Eight More Criminals in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—On account of the many electrical executions that are to take place in the three state prisons of this state the prisoners and officials have begun preparations to avoid many of the mistakes that occurred in Kemmer's case, and also to apply new methods that have been discovered in the interim. Thus far eight men have been condemned to die by electricity before Jan. 1, unless the court of appeals decide otherwise. The essential in Sing Sing prison, one in Auburn and one in Dannemora. In order to perfect arrangements a meeting was arranged for this city.

There were only present on the part of the state, Dr. Macdonald and Warden Brush. Some of the electricians at the meeting were present at the Kemmer execution and suggested several improvements. It was decided that it would be better to extend the time during which the current should be allowed to pass through the condemned from twelve to twenty seconds, and also to have the helmet so made as to fit completely over the victim's forehead, in order that the electricity should be directed entirely. Changes are also to be made in the seating of the victim, and also in the manner of strapping him to the chair.

THE RIOT IN GEORGIA.

Fall Partisans of the Disturbance Hard to Be Obtained.

ATLANTA, Oct. 24.—The riot in Coffee county, Ga., has so far resulted in the killing of two white men, the wounding of three military conscripts, ordered to the scene of riot by Governor Gordon, sent a telegram to the governor this morning stating that they had arrived at the station, called McDonald's Mills, and learned that the scene of the riot was seven miles in the woods, that the negroes were all armed and refused to give up the bodies of the two white men.

The military has left for the scene of the riot, and it is impossible to hear anything further as there is no telegraphic communication.

Reports have reached here that the military has been repulsed with five or six men killed, but this cannot be substantiated.

The governor is waiting to hear from the captain of the Waycross rifles before he sends more troops. Hundreds of negroes are said to be armed, and a serious race conflict is looked for.

A High Tide Decision.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 24.—In the United States district court Judge Handford rendered a decision affecting a large number of parties who have sought to hold high tide lands under a Valentine's scrip. The opinion is in the case of John M. Minn vs. the Tacoma Land company. The court holds that under the land laws of the United States the line of high tide is the boundary between land and water, and that the act of congress cannot be so construed as to authorize entry of mud flats or tide lands, bare at low tide, but subject to daily overflow. The demurrer to the amended complaint was sustained. An appeal will be taken to the United States supreme court.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate Bill Goes Over, and Several Local Bills Passed—Prospects of an Adjournment—Other Happenings in the State.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 24.—In the senate a resolution was offered by Senator Lowrey providing for the appointment of a committee of three senators to investigate the report that the senate clerks had conspired to delay the transmission of the Socratic bill from the senate to the house, as published in a Cincinnati paper. The resolution went over under notice to discuss.

Senator Richards made an effort to relieve the municipal committee from further consideration of the decennial equalization bill in order to have it put upon its passage, but his motion was lost by a strict party vote. Thereupon Mr. Aldrich presented the following protest, signed by all the republican senators present, which was spread upon the journal:

We, the republican senators, protest against the action of the majority in refusing to permit any bill abolishing the decennial board of equalization in Cincinnati, to be discussed and voted on at the extraordinary session of the general assembly, especially in view of the fact that such action was not unanimous in the message of the governor and requires one of his reasons for calling this session.

After passing a number of unimportant local bills the senate recessed until 2 o'clock. At that hour the senate again met, but no business was transacted. An adjournment was then taken for the day.

The house spent the early morning hours in the consideration of local bills on the calendar at third reading.

Mr. Hiram, of Harrison, tried to spring a scheme for mileage during the extra session. But it was sat down upon very hard.

The bill authorizing Bellefontaine to issue $100,000 bonds for machine shops passed.

Mr. McDermett, of Muskingum, stated the transaction county bill to roll in the house by offering a resolution that the governor should require to furnish information sustaining the charges he has made against the board of public improvements. It recites the two special messages sent in, and calls upon him to produce evidence at once.

Mr. McDermett made a vigorous speech defending the resolution and providing that he was only too willing to vote to oust the present board provided the governor would only give a sufficient reason for doing so.

Mr. Hodge, of Cuyahoga, Republican, wanted the resolution tabled, and his motion to that effect prevailed by a vote of 38 yeas to 42 nays.

This was a decided victory for the Republican-Democratic combine, and clearly indicated that the friends of the bill and proposed to carry any point they saw fit.

Many Democrats, under the lead of Forbes, of Cuyahoga, voted with the Republicans and assisted in clinching their victory.

The current bill was then read the second time.

A motion of McKen for a suspension of the rules to allow the bill to go through the third reading received 70 yeas to 24 nays, and was sustained.

The house then adjourned.

Some unpleasantness was caused over the correction of a clerical error in the Socratic non-partisan bill. This error was made by the engrossing clerk of the senate, who got the title wrong in preparing the bill for the house. Senator Aldrich and Richards corrected the error without any formal action.

Speaker Hyatt and others who were opposed to the bill, took exception, and claimed that the senators had exceeded their authority and had mutilated the records, thereby violating a statute. There were also insinuations about having the two senators arrested. The affair will cut no figure in the final passage of the bill and the error can easily be corrected by joint resolution.

A Soldier's Suicide.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 24.—C. H. Anderson, aged 31, suicided at a hotel by the morphine route. Papers found in his room showed that he had enlisted in the army and was born in Harrison county. A letter from Blaine, O., was addressed "Dear Uncle," and signed Mamie Edwards.

An Agreeable Surprise.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 24.—The unexpected gift of $500 from Hon. C. S. Hiram to the Wittenberg college, the Lutheran institution, to be used in furnishing the new Hanna divinity hall, was an agreeable surprise to Springfield's citizens.

Stanley Jones Gets a Stay.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 24.—The supreme court has granted an indefinite stay of execution to Stanley C. Jones, the Fairview murderer, sentenced to be hanged.

Tiffin, O., Oct. 24.—Mary J. Macke, one of Seneca county's oldest residents, died, lacking but fourteen days of her ninety-fourth birthday.

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Transcendence of the Two Conventions Held in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—The third annual convention of the grand international auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers came to an end yesterday. In the afternoon the new officers were installed. This convention is said to be the most successful the auxiliary has held. The sinking fund was established; an appropriation was transferred from the general fund of the order to the sinking fund for the establishment of a home for orphans of engineers; the by-laws and ritual were revised, and altogether the delegates felt elated at what they have accomplished.

Nearly all of the lady delegates started for their homes last night. Their next convention will be held at the time and place selected by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' convention.

The convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers gave their attention yesterday to discussion of the question of federation. Nearly every delegate had a plan of his own to suggest, and no vote on this question will likely be reached for some time. To-morrow the election of officers will be held and the place for holding the next international convention will be selected.

VALUABLE LUMBER LANDS

On Indian Reservations to Be Sold on the 10th of Next Month.

ASHLAND, Wis., Oct. 24.—The pine on the Lac du O'Reille, the Lac du Flambeau and the Bad River Indian reservations will be sold Nov. 10. This timber amounts to about 30,000,000 feet, worth to the Indians about $1.50 per 1,000. The proceeds are to be applied to the relief of the needy Indians on the reservations.

Agents Leahy says that the Indians have a decided dislike of the selections of land, eighty acres having been allotted to each Indian. It is likely that the confusion caused by this will prevent any of the Indians from working on their allotments until spring, in which case suffering is anticipated among the aged and children.

You cannot kill quail according to law until November 1st, and it may be as well not to attempt it. There are a number of fellows looking out for law-breakers in this direction.

A. B. RICHARDSON, of Dover, Delaware, the head of a large cannery establishment, estimates that under the new tariff law the price of canned goods will be lower, the average reduction being not less than 5 cents a dozen.—Exchange.

This destroys the effect of the bit of facitiae about the dogs welcoming the new tariff law.

FRED SCHUMACHER, the oatmeal king of Akron and a leading prohibitionist of the state, sends out a trade circular, beginning, "Our country is on the eve of great prosperity." As Mr. Schumacher is supposed to know something about it, his declaration is a great relief from the effect produced by the democratic tears shed in regard to the McKinley bill.

We have heard a great deal about the rise in price of all imported goods on account of the passage of the McKinley bill, but the facts have not as yet materialized. There was some such talk among druggists who were anxious to sell a large bill of goods. Some cases of the kind occurred in this city, but retailers who didn't buy then find the same goods and articles quoted at the old figures and in some cases lower. There seems to be no occasion for a scare.

A LATE special from Columbus this afternoon states that the Cincinnati Board of Public Improvements was finally abolished by the passage of the Conerant bill, giving the Mayor of Cincinnati power to appoint a new one. The work was accomplished by the Republicans, twelve democrats voting with them. The vote stood 71 to 31 in favor of the bill. After all, the thing is a victory for the republicans, who were not "in it" at the start.

Reunited—Redivided.

Arabella—No, Perry, I couldn't marry you now—after what you have just said. You see, you are not my equal.—Munsey's Weekly.

And So They Were Married.
"Shall we go through life together? Careless of the wind and weather? Speak, my darling," whispered he—
"Shall we, tell me, shall we?"
And looking down at his head he heard the echo of the final word.

He Fainted.

SOME HUNTING STORIES.

THEY WERE TOLD BY A RECTOR, A JOURNALIST AND AN OFFICER.

The Man Who Attended Antelope with Red, but didn't get a Shot. Shooting a Bird's Head off by Accident. A Rocky Mountain Sheep Story.

New York, Oct. 23.—They were spinning yarns together the other day.

"I shot a quail," said the rector, as he stretched his long legs out in front of the open fireplace, in which the flames danced merrily.

"Did he take much shooting?" asked the army officer. "Indians say, 'Pleg he up'."

"No," responded the other. "I'm not shaming out toward me and I'm not holding straight and he fell. There's not much of a story about it."

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere suffer from it. Scrofula is a disease of the blood, and its effects are seen in every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or gut, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every impurity from the blood.

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running sores on her face. One physician advised the use of Sarsaparilla, and she is now a healthy, robust child. Our village will soon have three resident ministers, and one more coming. We were party of house mission work, and wish to see success in their work.

Our trustees are having considerable work on ditches at present. Clairdon township is bound to be drained and made a healthy locality.

John Graham says W. S. Rainer has been practicing hypnosis upon him. We can not say this is true, but we know that Scott got the letter and the piece of flannel all right.

Our merchants are all stocking up for the winter and holiday trade and judging from appearances you can do as well here as elsewhere.

William McMillen, our jeweler, has accepted a position in jewelry establishment in Mansfield. We will then be without a store of that kind in our place.

T. B. Keen and M. F. Dounce were in Mt. Pleasant Wednesday on business for the good of our village.

The political pot was opened here Tuesday evening and outstepped Messrs. Hare, Cressinger, Smith and Seobald. Messrs. Hare and Cressinger did remarkably well and both made friends. If Charles Foster knows what is good for him, he will also give us a speech in the near future.

Query: What has the Almighty got to do with the tariff question? If you do not know, ask Will Seobald, and he will not doubt explain.

The Pulpit and the Stage. Rev. E. M. Shout, pastor United Brethren church, Blue Mound, Kas., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my physicians thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 20 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, manager Love's Funny Film combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousands of friends is to give them a trial bottle. Regular bottles at Block's Drug Store. Retail bottles 50 cents and $1.00."

Startling Facts. The American people are rapidly becoming a race of neurotics, and this fact is being suggested by the best remedy. Aphorism of H. B. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., writes: "I have taken a bottle of Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine, and feel it my duty to tell what wonders it has done for me. SALTUS AND FAWCETT.

E. J. Edwards writes of The Interesting Literary New Yorker. (Special Correspondence)

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—After a long wait, Mr. Edgar Saltus has issued a new work, which will probably be disappointing to his admirers, although it may gain him some favor in directions where he has heretofore found censure. It is a little book called "Love and Lore," and is made up of a series of essays in which the passion of love is treated from different points of view. In Mr. Saltus' novels he has usually treated passion as its base and unholy developments have been suggested to him. The critics were compelled to talk about his style, which was always unique, sometimes delightful, and frequently pedantic and stupid. The moralist condemned his theme, and all the more so.

He after a long, long silence, does my being here disturb you at your embroidery? She looking up, surprised—Why, I'm so glad you spoke, Mr. Jingly. I had quite forgotten you had not gone. Lawrence Amer-ican.

A Lady's Retort. "She said I was no lady." "What reply did you make?" "I told her I'd slip her face and scratch her eyes out if she didn't take it back."—Lawrence American.

The Little Lamb at Play. "You will certainly come to some awful end," said the lamb to her mother. "I have made a list of the things that I shall do. I shall go to the bottom of the sea."—Lawrence American.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell and he was unable to do his work. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Pa., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. He used three bottles of Electric Bitters and soon the sore was healed. He was able to do his work and his leg is sound and well.

John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large liver sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured him entirely. Sold at Block's Drug Store.

Young Tom White, of Cincinnati, stabbed himself with a stable fork because his mother would not let him continue his studies. He was a certain grade school. Didn't kill himself.

Comedy Co. was greeted with a good house last evening, and a cleverly actored triple bill was presented. The company won much praise and the leading lady, Miss Hattie Rowell, is an actress of more than average ability, all being loud in her praise." At Music Hall Saturday evening.

—Members of the Gymnasium met at city hall Thursday evening to hear the report of the committee on rules and regulations. The committee reported in favor of incorporation and the report was accepted, and an effort will be made to incorporate at once, with a capital stock of $5000. Temporary officers were also elected. The Gymnasium has already 115 members.

—A pleasant but quiet and unostentatious wedding occurred Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary A.
Kuehn, on West South street, being the marriage of her daughter, Flora L., to Simon B. Rice, deputy sheriff of Marion county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Donahoe, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, at 7:30 o'clock, in the presence of only the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom. A choice wedding supper was served and the evening spent in pleasant sociability.

—Mr. and Mrs. Rice scarcely need an introduction to Marion people, the bride is well known as one of the most estimable ladies in the city with a large number of admiring friends, while the groom is equally popular with many appreciative associates. The bride desires to join in the well-wishes for the future happiness and success of the couple.
They received many handsome presents.

—A quiet country wedding.
Henry D. F. Landis, a young mechanic who has made his home about two miles south of this city for the past two years, and Miss Minnie P. Tavenner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Tavenner, living about a half mile south of the city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents Thursday evening. Rev. W. P. Hale, of the Free Baptist church of Marion, performed the ceremony in the presence of only the relatives and close friends of the couple, after which a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Landis left on the midnight train over the Erie for Grapesville, Pa., the groom's former home, where they may possibly reside in future.

—The wedding couple was accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B.
Smeltzer, who expect to visit about a month at Grapesville.

—A fire occurred at the residence of Wesley Rommer, on Cherry street
Thursday night at 11 o'clock, originating in the kitchen. An alarm was sent in at that hour, but the department was unprepared and did not find the location until after the flames had been subdued. It is thought the fire originated from a lantern that had been used early in the evening. The damage consists of the destruction of the kitchen with the furniture, and also ruin of some of the sitting room furniture.
The damage is covered by insurance.
The fire department got out in excellent shape but could not find the fire. This is an other argument in favor of a fire alarm system.
